

My World

She's my world
My little girl.
I can see myself in her eyes.
And even when she cries

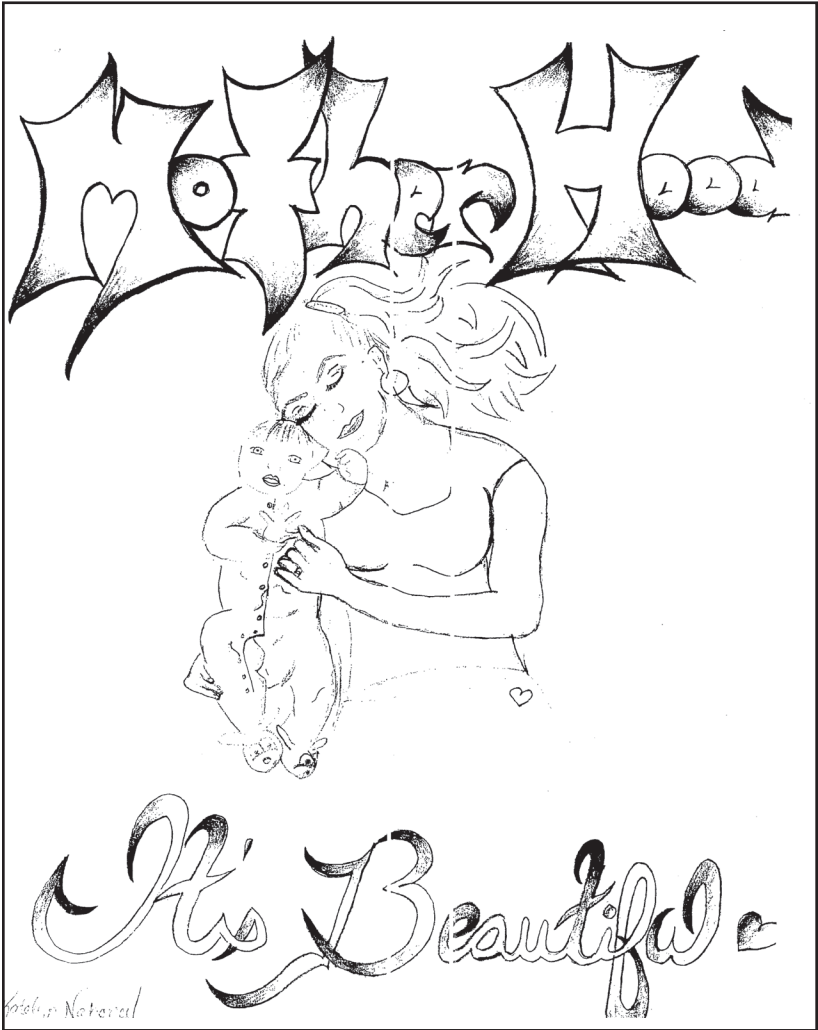

She has a beautiful soul.
And that's how I know
Her heart is as pure as gold.
I love watching her learn play and earn.
And she's good at doing what she's told.

She's my world
My little girl.
I can see myself in her eyes.
No matter how mad or frustrated I get
My love for her never dies.

I love teaching her things and watching her grow
counting her fingers and touching her toes.

She's my world
My little girl.

And my little girl
Is my whole world.

Katelyn Naboney, "Motherhood is Beautiful"